CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

---

William J. O'Neil, CPA

William J. O'Neil is a certified public accountant, attorney and a shareholder in Falcone, Listwan & O'Neil, P.C. During his 30 years of experience in the accounting profession, Bill has assisted many clients in business transition planning and in the orderly transfer of their assets in order to minimize transfer tax costs. As an attorney Bill has drafted many wills, trusts and powers of attorney in order to efficiently and tax effectively transfer assets to the intended beneficiaries.

Before joining Falcone, Listwan & O'Neil, P.C., Bill was most recently a senior manager in the tax department of the Detroit office of Ernst & Young. During his tenure there, Bill worked closely with large and small corporate clients in structuring business transactions, succession planning, the acquisitions and disposition of corporate entities and their assets, and a variety of other tax consulting and planning activities.

Prior to joining Ernst & Young, Bill was a member of the tax department of the metropolitan Detroit office of the international accounting firm of Grant Thornton. There he served clients in many industries, assisting them in a wide variety of areas such as mergers, acquisitions, dispositions, spin-offs, and individual tax planning.

Bill began his career by serving two years as an Agent with the U.S. Internal Revenue Service. During his years, he gained an intimate understanding of the methods and operations of the IRS, and developed contacts within the Service which continue to be of benefit to his clients today.

Bill holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration with a major in accounting from Wayne State University and a Juris Doctore with a concentration in taxation from Michigan State University College of Law. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants, and the State Bar of Michigan.
